MARCH REPORT

OPENING OF CO-HATY HOUSING AT THE FORMER HOTEL

In March, we completed the re-planning, renovation, and furnishing of the former hotel to house 80 people in Ivano-Frankivsk. As of now, 50 IDPs have already moved into the building.

WHICH WORKS DID THE HOTEL RENOVATION INCLUDE?

- replacement of the heating system, including the boiler room installation;
- renovation of all utility systems and the roof;
- partial re-planning of larger rooms into block units;
- restoration of the dining room and furniture creation together with the TOLOCAR project;
- furnishing rooms with furniture and textiles;
- arrangement of a common kitchen and dining room, coworking space, children's playroom, and laundry room;
- facade insulation;
- development of the terrace project - it will be built soon.

THE BUILDING NEAR KAMIANETS-PODILSKYI

Having completed the work in the common space, we continued to arrange the rooms and prepare the building for residents to move in.

A YEAR OF CO-HATY

~400 PLACES

On March 22, 2022, we came to the first construction site, with neither money nor tools, but with a great desire to help. This is how the history of CO-HATY began.

In a year we have

- restored 3 buildings
- created housing for 400 internally displaced persons

We admire the community that has formed around the project: the team, volunteers, Ukrainian and international partners, people who have sent donations, consulted, supported and spread the word about CO-HATY.

CO-HATY BED AT i am u are

Ukrainian Creators Fair i am u are took place in New York, bringing together more than 100 Ukrainian creators from various fields - industrial design, technology, ceramics and textiles, publishing, etc.

The exhibition featured the CO-HATY bed designed by Tania Pashynska and our team and manufactured in our makerspace. These beds are already in use in three CO-HATY homes for internally displaced persons.

CO-HATY: MEDIA AND EVENTS

Dozens of media outlets, including Reporter, Hmarochos, BZH, Misto, and others, covered the completion of the work in the former hotel and the move-in of the residents. An article about this was also published in the Czech media outlet ČESKÉ NOVINY.

Meanwhile, Vsim.ua, Hmarochos, and Pragmatika wrote about our building near Kamianets-Podilskyi.

Also in March, Anastasiya Ponomaryova participated in the panel discussion "GOOD-USE: Helping Neighbours and Supporting Locals with Architectural Re-use."

In March, our income amounted to UAH 23,370.00.

Of these, UAH 10,260.00 were charitable donations, and UAH 13,110.00 were other income.

The expenses of the CO-HATY project in March totaled UAH 1,354,439.00.
